Academic Facilities Planning

High-level Timeline

Evolving Principles of Informed Academic Facilities Planning

- promote stewardship by prioritizing adaptive reuse and addressing renewal and deferred maintenance liabilities
- enhance trans-disciplinary collaboration
- ensure academic and social integration
- use data wisely to consider alternatives
- address energy and sustainability issues
- to be determined

Sasaki Associates facilitates a process to help the University transform the capital planning process to help meet the challenges associated with achieving its academic & research aspirations.